Fresh Farms grows with grapes, extending availability

Helping retailers grow their sales through category management assistance is a strength of Rio Rico, Ariz.-based Fresh Farms, says David Watson, senior vice president of sales and marketing.

Fresh Farms is a large table grape grower in Mexico, and the marketer offers a wide range of fruits and vegetables with year-round availability. The firm also produces conventional and organic produce.

Watson says the company is growing its grape volume both in Jalisco and also in Sonora.

Jalisco volume will begin in late March with green grape harvest there, Watson said. Total Mexican grape volume for the company should be close to 6.5 million cartons in 2023, up about a million cartons from a year ago.

Most of that volume is in preferred varieties, such as Cotton Candy, Candy Snaps, Candy Hears, Candy Dreams, Sweet Globes, Sapphires and more. Fresh Farms also offers soft and hard squashes, green peppers, eggplant, cucumbers, corn, watermelon and other items.
