Grapefruit shines as Sunkist summer citrus is in full bloom

Sunkist is turning up the flavor this summer, spotlighting the bold, tangy refreshment of California-grown grapefruit and introducing a new way to enjoy it — the three- and five-pound grapefruit combo bags, now shipping nationwide.

With citrus demand climbing and shoppers seeking fresh, flavorful convenience, Sunkist’s grapefruit combo bag is tailor-made for summer’s big moments — from backyard brunches to refreshing recipes on-the-go. “Grapefruit brings a bold, refreshing twist to summer,” said Cassie Howard, senior director of category management and marketing at Sunkist Growers Inc. “While citrus shines brightest in winter, our grapefruit and summer varieties are perfect for warm-weather moments. With our new three- and five-pound grapefruit combo bags, we’re making it easier than ever for families to enjoy fresh Sunkist citrus with convenience and value top of mind.”

According to a recent Sunkist-commissioned study, citrus consumption continues to grow, with over 80 percent of fresh fruit consumers eating some type of citrus weekly — a six-point year-over-year increase. Grapefruit is seeing renewed enthusiasm among health-conscious shoppers, with premium perception of Sunkist fruit rising over the past year. The newly designed combo bag, available for both California-grown Star Ruby and Marsh Ruby grapefruit varieties, offers a colorful mix that delivers both taste and nutrition all summer long.
