Vidalia Sweet Produce increasing acreage on onions

Established in 2008, Vidalia Sweet Produce has built a strong reputation as an exceptional woman-owned farming corporation dedicated to the cultivation, packing and shipping of Vidalia sweet onions.

In addition to sweet onions, the company also specializes in watermelons and Vidalia sweet potatoes, along with yellow, red and white onions. "We specialize in all categories of onions, to make life easier on our retailers," said Tina Collins, CEO of the Cobbtown, GA-based company.

Certified as Woman's Business Enterprise by the National Women's Business Owners Council, Vidalia Sweet Produce is one of the top growers and shippers of sweet onions in the country. The company ships onions from Peru, Mexico and Texas, enabling it to provide customers with sweet onions all year long.

"Within the last year, we have increased our acreage on reds, whites, yellows and organics," Collins said. "We are looking forward to expanding our markets."
